GENERAL WILLIAMS AND OUR-

SELF.
The last issue of the Owensboro Shield contains an article personal to the editor of this paper which demands something more than a passing notice at our hand. We have no personal acquaintance with the editor of the Shield; but, until the last issue of his paper, presumed him to be a gentleman. The presumption was erroneous. We shall engage in no controversy with him. We cannot afford to stoop to his level. As he is the intrument used by General WILLIAMS to put in print a falsehood that person has been retailing by word of mouth all over the State, right here is about as good a time and place as may present itself to hurl it back into his teeth.

In regard to WILLIAMS' assaults upon the press at Burlington. Flemingsburg, Maysville, Glasgow and Owenton, we have the words of the reporters of the Cincinnati Enquirer, Commercial, and Gazette, and the editors of the Covington Journal and Covington Advertiser, Flemingsburg Democrat, Maysville East gle, Bulletin, and Republican, Glasgow Times, Owenton News, &c. Allof these editors are gentlemen of high social standing: gentlemen, all, of unimpeach- ly attended. able veracity. ...

We had no business with the last Legislature, did not go near it, and consequently no member of that body had occasion to vote as General WILLIAMS says be voted, to our discomfiture. If any one feels sufcient interest in the matter to consult the records of the last House, they will discover that it adopted a resolution censuring us for denouncing, over our proper signature, one of its members as a liar, slanderer and scoundrel, who had asserted in a speech from his place on the floor, "that no respectable woman belonged to the Order of Good Templars in Kentucky." And the records further show that General WILLIAMS coted against that resolution of censure .- yards long and matted together very thick We have heretofore abstained from par- A great many boats and raits passed ticularizing the grounds of our opposi- down during the recent rise, and the hands tion to WILLIAMS, because in doing on them combined together to the numso we would have to show up his real ber of one hundred men or over, and at character, and we did not care to make a peg upon which he could hang even has kept thousands of dollars back from The meeting the shadow of a charge of private malice on our part against him. It a large rounder, and is stocked in better, stronger, and in more tasty style than any plow we ever saw. It would do our Granger brethren good to look at it, and it would be a pleasure to follow such a plow rigged off with a suitable team. We also noticed a new cultivator, which is said to be excellent for plowing in oats, and saves half the time. By taking out the front teeth, it would be a splendid thing to cultivate corn. We would be glad to see our farmers try this new culily engaged in building him a store-house tivator, for, after a careful examination, we feel assured it will do good work.

OUR ROCKPORT LETTER.

ROCKPORT Ky., Mar. 16. A GOOD JUDGE OF A NEWSPAPER.

EDITOR HERALD: If you deem this leter worthy of a place in your paper, you may print it, for I want to see how a let- considering the hard times. ter of my writing will appear in print.

First, I want to say a word for the paper. It is the neatest and most readable country paper I ever saw. You must Medical School, has returned with M. D. have really a competent corps both of editors and of printers, and I felicitate the bounded success in his profession. citizens of Ohio county upon having such an exponent of its interests and advocate of its rights. No county in my knowledge has near such a paper. People of Ohio county, sustain your paper, it is eminent ly worthy of your confidence and patronage. Support it by your subscriptions; and if you have anything to sell, or if you want anything, advertise through its medium. Your county needs just such a means of communication with the outer world. Devoted to your interests, it is bold in its advocacy. Where is there a ounty richer in minerals and ores and timber, useful for all manufacturing puroses, than Ohio? Where is there a couny with more surplus land that is now only a source of tax, and daily depreciating for the want of proper attention? Advertise your minerals and farms, and draw men of capital and farmers of experience and intelligence among you, and thus place Ohio county in her proper position before the world.

"P. R." AND MR. ROCK. P. R., of this place, seems to be hard on W. H. Rock. I don't think he meant to be. He seems to me on the other hand to rather flatter himself that he was only widening the breach between Rock and other day, we happened to step into the the party for which he fought so long and from which he had received such unfair usage. Mr. Rock is a man of a good deal of intelligence, and is heartily welcome to throw his influence with us Demo crats. Come over, brother, come over and help us to kill the too fatted calf.

ROCKPORT IS IMPROVING fast for such hard times. Several new buildings are already built and occupied, and there are others in the course of erection. Business is brisk here by what I have seen it in other places.

One night last week the store of Mr. John Dougherty was visited by some person name not known. The money drawer was rifled, and a couple of pairs of pantalcons failed to come to time next morning. . Respectfully, BUFORD.

SPRING LICK ITEMS.

Spring Lick, March 16, 1875. THE POLITICAL OUTLOOK. The coming political contest is creating but little enthusiasm in this county. It pursuance to the request of the executive ommittee of the State, a convention wil be held in Leitchfield on the 4th Monday, proximo, for the purpose of appointing delegates to the Democratic State convention at Frankfort on 6th of May. A there is so little said about the aspirants for the various offices, we will not attemp to foreshadow the result of our county convention, but so far as our knowledge extends we think the Hon, Jas. B. Mc Creary is certainly the first choice of this county for Governor, and J. C.U nderwood for Lieutenant-Governor.

Occasionally we hear of a prospective candidate for legislative honors. Only two, we believe, out of the number who are offering themselves as sacrifices or the political altar, have officially declared their intention to remain in the canvas until the August election. We were in formed, a few days ago, that Dr. A. R Byers had some aspirations in this direction. The Doctor is a very prominen and if he should become a candidate he will receive the hearty support of many voters at the August election. We regret that his political record don't accord with our own and the popular record of this county; but it is our opinion that the old ssues will be ignored pretty generally the coming campaign, and new ones substituted therefor. So mote it be.

REV. L. B. DAVISON held quarterly meeting at our church on last Saturday and Sunday. We regret that his congregation was so small, but this is easily accounted for when we mention the fact that this community is not much on the church-going principle. His discourse Sunday on the Baptism of Christ was an able effort, replete with argument and sound logic, and elicited the undivided attention of his congregation.
